College Announces Service Test Dates

Student Should First Contact Local Board

Selective Service College Qualification Tests will be given at Northwest Missouri State College on May 26, June 16, and June 30. The purpose of these non-compulsory tests, administered under the Educational Testing Service, is to determine the relative fitness of selective service registrants for continued college study.

Consideration for deferment will be based on meeting these qualifications; those who have completed their freshman year must rank in the upper half of their class or make a score of 70 on the tests; those who have completed their sophomore year must rank in the upper two-thirds of their class or make a score of 70; those who have completed their junior year must rank in the upper three-quarters of their class or make a score of 70; graduate students must rank in the upper half of their class or make a score of 75.

Students are not required to meet both of these demands. Classification of rank in class will be made on the basis of male students only.

Students wishing to take the test should register immediately by obtaining a post card application from any Selective Service local board. The card should be filled out in accordance with the instructions printed in the Bulletin of Information which may be obtained in the office of the registrar. Incompleteness or filling out more than one application will lead to (Continued on Page Three)

New Student Union Committee Is Appointed for Next Year

Members Begin Important Duty With Showing Stirring Dramatic Movie, "Prisoner of Zenda"

As the new Student Union structure zooms toward completion, the temporary committee is gaining valuable experience by promoting weekend activities on the campus as a function of the Student Union.

President Dick Gordon has appointed the members of the temporary Student Union committee who will work the remainder of this year and all next year. Their tasks will be undoubtedly transferred from the temporary Union location, the Bearcats' Den, to a new, large building.

Coleman Comes Next
For this Friday night the committee has selected one of the remarkable dramatic movies of all time, "The Prisoner of Zenda." This stirring film story of regal romance, flashing sword, and life or death intrigues, features Ronald Coleman, Madeline Carroll, and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

There will be a comedy plus a selected short, "Air Maniacs." Next Friday the committee has planned to show Howard Hawks' wild whirlwind of a love battle between a charmingly reckless guy and a stunning, witty girl. Gary Grant is the guy and Rosalind Russell the girl in "His Girl Friday." There will be a comedy and a short with this movie, too.

Den Will Be Open
Immediately following each of these movies the Bearcats' Den will be open in which the students can play ping pong, pool, or shuffleboard; or can dance in the adjoining room. Every Saturday night the Bearcats' Den will be open as a function of Student Union.

Members of the new temporary Student Union committee are Bea Straight and Max Pierce, freshmen; Audrey Bentall and Herschel Neil, sophomores; Jo Cutler and Betty Curry, juniors; and Jim Montague and Dean Knodle, seniors. Terry Noah is the chairman of the group, and Herbie Awe will act as ex officio member.

Tentative plans were formulated in the Student Union meeting April 17 to have a talent show this Friday. Bea Straight and Max Pierce were put in charge of the show and are attempting to make it a reality.

An evening of dancing on the tennis court under the lights has been planned for May 16. A definite program will be posted later when necessary sanction has been received.

Faculty Members Will Speak to High Schools

Several faculty members will present commencement addresses at high schools in the surrounding territory.

President J. W. Jones will speak to the Pateett class, Dean W. A. Brandenburg, to Craig, Hatfield, Qutman, and Diagonal, Iowa. Dr. Sterling Surrey will speak at Pattonburg, Martinsville, Kidder, and Glenwood, Iowa.

Dr. John Harr will address the Graham and Clearmont classes. Mr. Don Peterson will go to Coffey for an address. Mr. Everett Brown plans to address the Mercer, Gilman City, Jamesport, and McFall graduating classes.

Home Economics Group Plans Self-Evaluation

Dr. June Cozine, chairman of the home economics department, attended a workshop on Home Economics in Higher Education at Des Moines, Iowa, April 13 and 14. The American Home Economics Association sponsored this workshop. Plans were made at the workshop whereby each college might make a self-evaluation of its department.

On Saturday night, Dr. Cozine went to Ames, Iowa, and spent the night there.

Banquet Features Awards
The banquet will also feature the presentation of the Best Newspaper awards and the gold MCNA keys to the winners of the Best in Division prizes. Certificates will be given to winners ranging excellent, superior, and good.

For the past three years the Northwest Missourian has been awarded a first place for being judged the best newspaper of Class B schools in the state of Missouri.

Any senior who will be absent from school on that date should see Mr. Clifford Kensingler ahead of the scheduled time.

Form letters will be sent to all fall and winter term graduates. The College owns approximately 60 caps and gowns, and the remainder will be ordered from Collegiate Cap and Gown, Champaign, Illinois.

John Pope, president of the senior class, will appoint a committee of seniors to assist in taking measurements.

Hey Man! Can You Go Hokey Pokey?

A new dance that Miss Jutten's square dancing class at 11 o'clock is doing is the Hokey Pokey. The Hokey Pokey is the latest dance craze to hit the country, and is rapidly gaining favor in schools, dances, and mixers throughout the country.

This dance is a combination of the square dance and the Lambeth Walk. The Hokey Pokey is a gay and happy dance and one which everyone may have a good time doing.

Secondary Education Majors Are Allowed More Electives

Elective hours will be almost doubled for students working toward a Bachelor of Science in Education, Secondary, degree according to an announcement recently made by Dr. W. A. Brandenburg, dean of the College faculty. New requirements have been arranged to give students a greater opportunity to include courses which may lie outside their chosen field, but in which they are interested.

Formerly only 7.5 hours of electives were allowed, but under the new plan, which allows 14 hours, a student may include several courses of his own choice.

Students who have completed three-fourths of their work, ninety hours, will not be obliged to follow the new plan unless they wish to do so, but all other students will be bound by it.

Business Manager

JOE COLLIER

Nadine Cramer Is New Tower Editor

Joe Collier Is Chosen Business Manager

Joyce Nadine Cramer has been chosen as editor of the 1951-1952 Tower, and Joe Collier has been selected again as the business manager.

Nadine worked on the yearbook this year as editorial editor and as an assistant to the editor, Dick Gordon. This valuable experience qualifies the Pasadena, Texas, sophomore for the difficult job she will have.

Joe Collier worked efficiently as business manager of this year's Tower and was rewarded by being selected again as business manager for next year. About 1000 Towers have been ordered by the Shenandoah, Iowa, Junior.

A committee composed of the presidents of the sophomore and junior classes, the editor and business manager of the Tower, and faculty advisers selected the new editor and business manager in a meeting April 11.

Dick Gordon, editor of this year's Tower, has announced that the new Tower will be ready for distribution in about three weeks. No definite date has been stated.

Initiate Three
Three Alpha Sigma Alpha pledges were initiated into active membership April 4. They were Mallerd Maune, Roberta McGregor, and Evelyn McGregor.

Herschel Nelson won the golden bull, a trophy, presented to the Ag Club member with the highest number of points in the recent spring judging contest sponsored by the organization. Herschel was also first in the beef cattle division and tied with Don Grace, Max Miller, Nowell Miller, and Bill Pease for a medal in sheep. Lamar Esbeck won the swine medal.

The medals were awarded to the members with the highest number of points in each of the three divisions. They were presented by Mr. F. B. Houghton at the Annual Award Banquet of the Ag Club April 20, at Residence Hall.

The banquet honored the fathers and special guests of the Ag Club members. President J. W. Jones and Delbert Gabbert, president of the Ag Club, extended their welcome to the guests. Mr. Roy Reed, director of organization for the Missouri Farmers' Association Exchange, spoke of farmer cooperatives. He was accompanied by Mr. Pete Sorenson. A film, "Safety," was presented by the guest speaker. The invocation was given by Max Miller.

Mr. Brown Takes Movies
Mr. Everett Brown, director of Field Service at the College, showed movies of the Ag Club members judging the livestock in the contest. He went along, during the judging, took the movies and had them ready to present at the banquet. Musical numbers at the affair were given by Lyle Martin.

It was a cold, windy day when the Ag Club members actually judged the livestock. They went out in snow on April 12 and hastily made their placing. This is probably why there were some mighty low scores.

Banquet and Judging
Committees for the banquet included Ross Wilson, Bill Stone, and Don French, program; Maurice Nelson, Bill Baber, food; Jim Montague, Lamar Esbeck, Don Gregory, invitations; Kenny Benham, Max Miller, Will Slaughter, place.

Those taking part in the judging competition were Stanley Butt, Margaret Andrews, Delbert Gabbert, (Continued on Page Three)

Committee Sends $405 To WSSF Headquarters

Former president Max Kinney has announced that the World Student Service Fund committee has sent a check to the national headquarters for $405. Last year, with a much higher enrollment, the school contributed approximately $200.

The theme of the drive this year emphasized education of the students as to what the WSSF was and how its principles can help democracy. Monetary contributions were secondary.

Direct steps taken by the committee to raise money were a Chinese Dinner at Residence Hall and the selling of old books and newspapers. In an assembly three visiting foreign students talked about the need for educational aid in their countries.

Members of the World Student Service Fund committee were Orretta Knipmeyer, Ivaldene Crabtree, Norine Norris, Margie Lewis, Pauline Downing, Herb Awe, Jessie Weddle, Joe Collier, Bob Lister, Dick Callison, Diana Yip, and Max Kinney.

Blanche and Florence Zucker Entertain Students in Program

Featured on the program presented this morning by the duo-planners, Blanche and Florence Zucker, in the College Auditorium, will be their own arrangements, ranging from Bach to boogie.

Being discovered by an European musician, while they were playing on their green toy miniature piano was the first step in the Brooklyn sisters' musical careers. Appearing on the program of the White House Correspondents Dinner in honor of President Truman in 1949 was one of the high points of their careers.

In the New York College of Music the Zuckers were awarded scholarships to continue their education in music. Later they specialized; Blanche chose the cello and Florence chose voice.

Appearance for the American Theatre Wing during the war for the Stage Door Canteen, veterans' hospitals, and service camps increased the girls' fame. They have also given concerts, radio and television programs of classic, popular, and jazz throughout the country.

As professional concert artists they find each new town a new adventure, for they are fascinated by new places and people.

LET'S HAVE A BY-LINE

"Mud-slinging" during political campaigns is not an uncommon practice. Mud-slinging following the election, however, seems to be limited to this paper. Highly opinionated articles are permissible as printed matter only when they are in the form of an editorial or under a by-line.

The Northwest Missourian of last week carried under its largest headline the adjective-laden story of how "... the basis for individual merit rather than organizational merit has been renewed as a prerequisite for the office (of President of the Student Senate)." The author of this article evidently assumed the Greek societies to be a well organized political group, which is far from true.

In the final voting, no fraternity or sorority, with the possible exception of the Phi Sigs, voted 100 per cent for any candidate. Also the name of the Independent Club may be misleading in regard to its political activities. At any rate, there is no basis for insinuations that a corrupt machine has been overthrown.

With all due credit to Dick Gordon for his victory, the voting proved there are still a few (more than 250, if you care for statistics) who believe Terry Noah has the qualifications of a leader.

—Ken England

EDITOR'S NOTE

The Northwest Missourian believes that anyone who qualifies, is willing to run, and campaign, has a right to be a candidate. Any statement as to personal merit or leadership ability is not capable of being judged; only the future can tell the personal ability of the one elected.

TRIBUTE FOR ACCOMPLISHMENT

Two weeks ago the heavy burden of the Student Senate presidency was transferred to the succeeding officer by Max Kinney, who had served as president from the spring of 1950.

No matter what qualities an individual may have when he obtains this office, he is not a success until he has proved himself worthy of the many responsibilities of the important office.

Max Kinney has been a great success in meeting the challenge of many important problems, making many crucial decisions. His ambition never laxed in the prodigious effort he encouraged for well-functioning, progressive Student Senate. He served as representative of all students and positively bettered the government. His leadership has given all a better Student Union, important administrative rights, a revised handbook, and many other tangible and intangible benefits. He left your Senate an influential body.

To a man who has given his all, all the time, the Northwest Missourian salutes Mr. Max Kinney, former student body president.

LOOKING FORWARD

The Road of Life takes us through many strange streets to many strange villages.

Each turn brings new problems. We trudge along the Alleys of Despair. We skip along the Boulevards of Joy, always going forward, never knowing what will be just around the corner.

It may be the Lane of Love, the Way of Wealth, or the Highway of Happiness; it may be the Path of Poverty or the Street of Sadness.

If we keep moving, however, always looking where we are going and not where we have been, we shall eventually find the Glory Road where there are no strangers or strange villages.

—John Lindell

Industrial Arts Group Promote Color Dynamics

Color dynamics, as used in industry, has been established in the general shop department on the ground floor of the industrial arts building. Color dynamics is the scientific utilization of the energy in color to promote efficiency in work.

The effect of color dynamics is tremendous. It cuts glare to a minimum and reduces eye tension which causes fatigue. The eyes are constantly adjusting and readjusting for different distances. Eye muscles, like other muscles, tire after so much work. They communicate this fatigue to other parts of the body causing headaches, nervousness, and digestive trouble.

Change Required Labor

Putting color dynamics to use in the shop has required considerable time and labor by students and instructors during the winter quarter.

Before the program was begun, the shop was painted in gray and appeared dingy, causing a slow-down in work. Now, a person feels as though he is receiving a "lift" when he walks through the shop. Cheerfully painted walls and machinery put one at ease and in a mood for working.

Reduces Eye Fatigue

Accidents have no place in the shop now, although previously they were almost nonexistent. Eye fatigue has been greatly reduced because the eyes do not have to work as hard to see an object.

Yellow, which is highly visible, is used as a caution signal. At times it is banded with black to make the color stand out. This scheme is used around drop-offs and on objects jutting out into the aisles.

Red Is Danger Color

Red, the danger color, is used only on fire equipment.

Orange, which is a sign for "on-guard," is used on bolts, machine guards, and moving parts.

Aluminum is the "hot" paint of the shop. All units connected with heating are coated with aluminum paint.

Machinery is Green

Machinery is painted in vista green which causes the machine to recede and brings out the vital parts more clearly.

Green is used throughout the shop, and puts a person in the mood for accomplishing his work.

Light acoustical ceilings are an added improvement. They cause an improvement in lighting and considerably reduce the noise in the shop.

The industrial arts department extends an invitation to everyone to visit the shop.

Six High Schools Will Send Teams to Contest

All teams and individuals that entered the state contest won first place in their respective events at the district contest held at the College conducted by members of the commerce department.

Students of Music Let Hair Down in Assembly

Students of the music department let their "hair down" on the last assembly. Music from Bohemian classics to western swing was heard. Although not sponsored by the music department, the players, with the exception of two, are members of it.

The Dixiecrats, consisting of Harold Tarpley, piano; Robert Tebow, trombone; Clarence Godbey, clarinet; William Baker, trumpet; and Jack Belcher, drums; played several rhythmic Dixieland numbers.

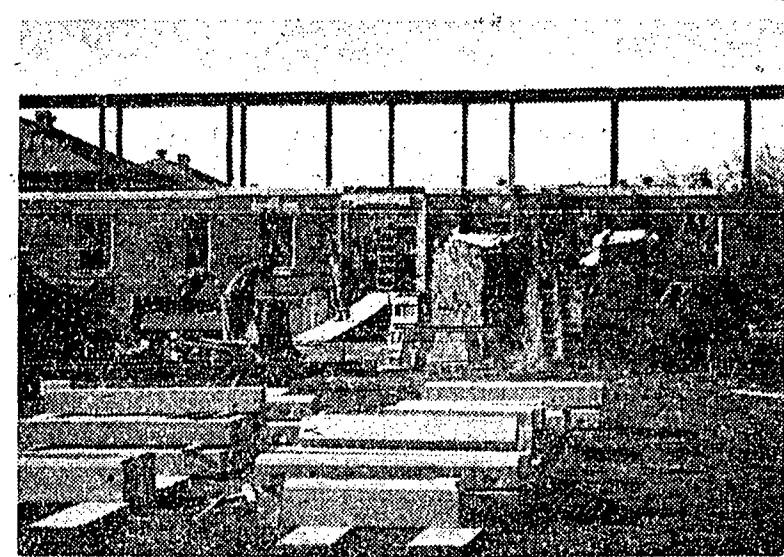

Bohemian classics were played by the same group comprising the Dixiecrats with the addition of John Wallace, clarinet, and Jesse Masters, E flat bass.

The western swing was provided by Lyle Martin, guitar; Clarence Godbey, clarinet; Robert Tebow, string bass; and Bill Miller, accordion.

The assembly was closed with Bill Miller playing some piano boogie. Dean Knodle acted as master of ceremonies for the entire program.

The Stroller

Mae Turner came up with a startling discovery recently. In case the physical science department is interested, those strapless evening gowns so frequently seen these days are held up by imagination.

Charley Watson is back to normal again now that "There's Always Juliet" is over. Mr. Robert Gee was slightly worried about Charley's blood pressure during those love scenes with Mary Beth Fries.

The Registrar's office slipped up when it neglected to list Dr. William Homedale's class on "Political Science and General Damfoolishness" in the '50-'51 schedule. The class meets five days a week in the Smoker and lasts as long as anyone will listen. Among the star pupils now enrolled are Herb Hinton, Jim Evans, Lyle Martin, Cal Goeders and Bill Sipes. The guy in the corner wearing the dunce cap is none other than Max H.

Doe Surrey would appreciate hearing from anyone who can devise a way to get Bob Conley and Harry Miller to an 8:00 class before 8:30.

SPECIAL BULLETIN: Mr. James Pool, President Emeritus of AU, has announced May 3 as official DELL DAY!

Mr. Gee has a job for some up-and-coming criminology student. It seems some person or persons unknown gave Gee's name to the Marine Corps recruiter as being interested in a paid vacation through scenic Korea.

A lot of the fellows, such as Dick Grun and Ted Stevens, are headed for the golf course these days, but the Stroller prefers to just sit back and dangle dream.

Who Says College Presidents In Big Brick Homes Aren't Human?

By BILL HULL

At the end of the walk that leads to the Administration building stands a big, comfortable-looking brick house and in this house lives the President of the College, Dr. J. W. Jones. The job of being a college president is a rough one and it takes patience and understanding to handle the job well; it takes many other things to do the job properly.

There are many things that we students of this College know about Dr. Jones. For instance, we know that he is sincere and we know that he is conscientious. We know that if we ask him a question we get a direct and truthful answer, for he is honest with his students and faculty.

But here are a few things about Dr. Jones that most of us would never have known unless someone had gone to the trouble to find out. He has a cat named Audrey, a beautiful silver Persian, and a dog named Sean, an Irish terrier with a strong personality.

Dr. Jones can barbecue steaks with the best of them. He has one of the finest record collections in town.

He likes children very much and has a special drawer in his desk filled with balloons to give them when they come to see him. When he goes on trips he sends children of faculty members and all the children he knows in town post cards from wherever he is.

Did you know when the river overflowed its banks he was right there in his shirt sleeves filling sandbags, and when the tornado hit Worth he was one of the first to go to help?

Like to Entertain
Did you know that he and Mrs. Jones like nothing better than to give a party in their house? And if you have never been to one of these parties you have an experience in store for you that you will cherish for a long, long time, for if there is one place in this town that you are made to feel at home, it is in their home.

When I went to see Dr. Jones and tried to get him to talk about himself, he wouldn't give much information—I had to go to another source—but after I finished talking to him I came out with a few ideas of my own.

Service Is His Life
Our president is a man whose job is doubly hard for him because his heart is so big. His job would be easier if he weren't the type that worries about the problems of others, and when I say others, I mean both faculty and students.

This college and the students in this college are more than just a job to him—they are his whole life, a life that has been mostly spent doing things for others, a life that has always been deep in purpose, firm in righteousness and dedicated to the service of others.

I am proud and very grateful to be a student of this College, and I know that if I ever have any problem that I can't handle, I can always get some help from "The Man in the Big Brick House."

Local Newman Club Attends Central Province Meeting

By PAT SCHULTE

Members of the Iowa State College Newman Club at Ames played host to the Central States Province of the National Newman Club Federation for its eleventh annual convention of the week end of April 13-15.

More than 400 delegates from 30 colleges in Kansas, Illinois, Nebraska, Missouri, and Iowa attended the entire convention; other participants in parts of the event.

The highlights of the convention were the large mixer Friday night, the panel sessions, the business meeting Saturday, and the banquet and dance Saturday evening.

The mixer dance got under way about 9 p.m. in the South Ballroom of the Memorial Union, student center of Iowa State College students. Entertainment was provided by the Iowa State Club.

Alumnus Hurst Hogan Writes About Conditions in Korea

Sgt. Hurst Hogan, with the First Marine Division in Korea, reports to a member of the Northwest Missourian staff of conditions as he sees them:

"I got the first of the papers from you about two weeks ago and then later I got two more. The news they give is a wee bit old, but it is new to me. I just learned that there is a 'Marine' on the faculty now. I thought it should have been that way."

"Korea is a land of very poor people. They feel none of the drive that moves an American. They care little about what is to be their goal. Respect for anything is paid by them only so long as it is directly in power over them. Their value, permit them to change from one to another, one political party to another, and from one set of material values to another."

"I have met three people from Harrison County. All of us went to Bethany to high school. M/Sgt. Leslie Foster and I went to H. S. together. He is a regular and has been in since 1937. He and I are in the same company. Ralph Daily and Jerry Hendren are the two others. They are just children and each say that an eighteen year old is old enough. Each was just that when they made the Inchon landing. A Pfc. Gonz from Parnell is in the Signal Company with Sgt. Foster."

"All of Korea is a mass of ruin. The rice straw roofs they use here are great fire traps so it need not be said that towns are about a memory. Pusan and Masan are untouched, but the other places are gone. Russian and U. S. equipment are being given the 'acid' test here. Our planes have been giving the Communist supply lines the proper welcome."

"The First Marine Division is fighting a new kind of war to me. It is not an amphibious assault and a fast hard drive. It is go slowly, probe, question, suspect everyone and end the day wondering what the length of time for this will be. I am at division headquarters and here we have tents, cots, stoves, even electricity. I am glad I am not in a low echelon. Those boys live much worse—sleeping in mud on the ground with absolute black-out a must. I know we, all of the people everywhere, owe them a great deal. They are doing very well."

"There is a fellow in telephone work here, as I am in it, who teaches school at Westboro. He is a Maryville student—a Cpl. Gearhardt. Do you people know him? He is a second for the 'Northwest Missourian.'"

After they have received the application, the Educational Testing Service will assign a date for taking the test. The card returned to the applicant will be the ticket of admission and no one will be admitted without one of these tickets. Those taking the test must also present an official document showing their selective service number and giving exact information concerning their local board, and should bring with them a fountain pen or a No. 2 pencil.

The tests, which last about three hours, will show the student's ability to read with understanding and to solve new problems by use of general knowledge.

Each applicant will be fingerprinted to prevent unauthorized persons from taking the tests. Persons who do not report on time, for whatever reason, will not be admitted, and anyone who begins the test, even though he does not finish, will be considered to have taken the whole test.

Miss Vida Dunbar had as her guest April 14 and 15, Miss Faye Orup, who teaches home economics at the Liberty Memorial High School in Lawrence, Kansas.

Graceland Track Team Challenges Maryville Today

First Home Contest Will Test Green and White Cinder Power

Mick Anderson, Bob McClure, Hub Sharp, Five Point Speedsters, Head Coach Milner's Squad

The first home duel for the Maryville track team will take place this afternoon against the visitors from Lamoni, Iowa, Graceland Junior College. Coach Ryland Milner's tracksters, although lacking point potential, are optimistic because of the fact that last year the Bearcat team swamped the Yellow Jackets 98 points to 37.

Little Mick Anderson, stalwart miler and two miler, will be instrumental in promoting a Bearcat victory. Last year as a sophomore he outdistanced the Lamoni men in both events. He ran the mile in 4:40.48 and the two mile in 10:04.

P. E. Women Plan Week-end Journey

Placed in Low Hurdles
Bob McClure placed only in the low hurdles last year, but will undoubtedly be number one man in the low and high event this year. Bob's recent victories have allotted him a definite place in the ten point category.

From the freshmen ranks, Hubert Sharp will display his ability at high jumping. The high jump artist has won Maryville many points already with his first place finishings.

Ramsey Shows Promise
Ramsey has shown promise in the 440 and Wayne Anderson in the distance races. John Hellerich may come through for Maryville as he did against Doane last week.

Last year, with cold winds sweeping the athletic field, the Yellow Jackets accumulated many points in the dash events which at the present time is Maryville's crucial weakness. Rhodes paced the losers last year with victories in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. These, incidentally, were the only events which the Graceland men won.

Exciting Play Day Program Is Planned

Play Day, when junior and senior high school girls of northwest Missouri come to the College for a day of fun and games, will be held Saturday, May 5. An annual affair on the campus, Play Day is sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association under the direction of their sponsor, Miss Bonnie Magill.

The following committees are working hard to get ready for the Play Day: WAA name tags, Nila, Geer, chairman; Joan Cutler and Lois Butt; name tags for girls, Arlene Beavers, chairman; Kathryn Barmann, Virdeen Dorman, and Charlotte Turner; award ribbons, Isabel Nash; ribbons for all girls, Jeanne Overstreet, chairman; Jo Ann Magnuson, Charlene Kime, Peggy Carstens, Vera Van Velsion, and Roberta Berry.

The program is planned as follows: 8 a. m. registration; 8:15, square dancing, called by Miss Jessie Jutten, assisted by WAA girls; 9:30, assembly. There will be a welcome by President Jones, announcements, and team organization.

From 10 to 12:30, there will be team competition in volleyball, softball, deck tennis, relays and individual events such as 50 yard dash, horse shoe pitch, basketball throw for distance, hop-step-jump, standing broad jump, and basketball free throw.

Lunch will be served at 12:30; at 1:45, there will be a group picture taken; 2:15, there will be entertainment by the Rhythm Wranglers and Sigma Dolphins Swim Club, directed by Miss Jessie Jutten. Award assembly will be at 3:30 p. m.

Maryville Tennis Men Rout Tarkio

Win Seasonal Opener With Clean 6-0 Score

After bad weather caused cancellation of the first three matches, the tennis season finally got underway Saturday, April 14, on the home courts when Maryville State College crushed Tarkio College 6-0.

In winning its first contest of the year, Maryville chalked up a decisive victory. With Cal Goeders coming from behind to win his match the hard way, the Cats made a clean sweep victory.

McFadden and Goeders, both newcomers this season, show a great deal of promise and should bolster the squad in future outings.

The team has a long way to go to meet its tough schedule, but with some good weather it should show much improvement.

Singles
1. Bud Carmichael (M) defeated Graham (T) 6-3; 6-1.
2. Hugh McFadden (M) defeated Salas (T) 6-1; 6-1.
3. Cal Goeders (M) defeated Moore (T) 7-9; 6-4; 6-1.
4. John Pope (M) defeated Cornell (T) 6-3; 6-2.

Doubles
1. Carmichael and McFadden defeated Graham and Cornell 6-1; 6-2.
2. Goeders and Pope defeated Salas and Moore 6-0; 6-3.

Baseball Team Prepares For First Contest

Bad Weather Conditions Have Hurt Practices

College baseball has been receiving serious setbacks as bad weather continues. Student Coach Bob Hemmenway reports that in all of the last two weeks only one or two days were conducive to practice.

The Bearcat baseball team, which the students began, may had a tremendous turnout. Squad cutting will begin this week in order to trim the team for better efficiency.

The first outdoor contest has tentatively been planned against Tarkio May 5. Although no certification of the contest has been received, the team is preparing for that and following games.

Athletic director "Lefty" Davis thought pessimistically of a baseball team earlier this spring. His contention was that unfavorable weather conditions would prevent practice and the playing of games.

As yet, the spring rains have, but with a month and a half remaining, a successful baseball season can still be conducted.

R. T. Wright Collects Bridle Buttons as His Unusual Hobby

By DWAN WICK
R. T. Wright, head of the agriculture department, has the unusual hobby of collecting bridle buttons.

With the innovation of the motor car, the horse has become increasingly scarce as a means of transportation and so are the buttons which adorned the bridle on each side of the animal's head.

Mr. Wright's love of horses plus the revelation in a hobby magazine that the buttons were becoming rare caused him to start this unique hobby in 1940.

Most Prized Have Glass Centers
The button, for the benefit of the members of the motorage, are about an inch and a half in diameter and are made of various materials ranging from brass to bakelite. The most prized are those having glass centers with a design of some sort beneath the glass.

Mr. Wright now has about thirty of these buttons, the oldest of which, according to Mr. Wright's sources of information, dates back to use by the Union Cavalry in the Civil War. Mr. Wright's collection has a matched pair of these bearing the letters "U. S."

"Copies" Are Not Desired
The matched pairs of the buttons are worth about three dollars to the present collector's market. Mr. Wright points out that a large number of facsimiles or copies can be bought but that "they never saw a horse" and therefore he is not interested in those specimens.

Mr. Wright has built up his collection from purchases from friends and supply houses, and through gifts from friends. His first acquisition came from a friend in Florida.

Are Mounted on Plywood
All of the buttons are carefully mounted on plywood boards with framing so that they can be readily viewed and easily protected from damage or loss.

If you are looking for a hobby that is certainly not run-of-the-mill and doesn't cost a fortune to start and maintain, this may be your answer.

Sigma Tau Win Tournament
Sigma Tau Gamma's volleyball sextet won the final game of the volleyball tournament by defeating the "M" Club, April 5. Members of the team were Bill Davis, Bill Corbin, Charles Oellermann, Charles Ramsey, John Koffman, and John Hoerath. The tournament was run on the principle of double elimination.

Doane Overpowers Maryville Easily

Utilize Dash Victories For a 47 Point Margin

Getting their first taste of outdoor competition this year, the Northwest Missouri State College track squad lost a 91½ to 44½ decision to Doane College at Crete, Neb., Tuesday, April 17.

Showing a definite weakness in the sprints, the Cats found themselves trailing 35 to 1 after the running events were concluded. Charlie Ramsey picked up a third place in the 440 to give Coach Ryland Milner's men their only point.

Anderson Stars
Micky Anderson, the M. I. A. mile and 2-mile champion, scored firsts in his specialties without being pressed. In the 2 mile run, he was followed home by his brother Wayne a freshman who shows great promise.

Hubert Sharp, Bob McClure and John Hellerich scored firsts for the Green and White in their specialties. Sharp cleared 5 foot 9 inches in high hurdles in 15.5 and rugged John Hellerich, of football prominence, made his college debut as a shot putter and recorded a 39 foot 11½ inch heave for the 16-pound ball.

Hellerich Shows Promise
Hellerich, after his performance yesterday, could with practice figure heavily as a potential point winner in conference outdoor competition.

The Cats meet Peru and Tarkio on Monday in their next scheduled meet, while the tennis squad takes on St. Benedicts at Atchison, Kas., Friday.

Game Schedule
Boasting an eleven game schedule of which only two have been played, the Maryville Bearcats will tangle with the Tarkio men once more this Friday at Tarkio.

Following the contest Saturday there will be three consecutive games away from home, April 30, May 2, and May 4 against Graceland, Omaha University, and William Jewell, respectively.

Nebraska State Teachers will be on the campus for a match May 5 and St. Benedicts will come May 7. Other postponed games will be included among the regular schedule contests.

It is an important asset to have the team well-backed by the student body. Notification of the times of these tennis games will be made on the intramural bulletin board. Watch this board for future games, and plan to attend in order to help the Bearcats win.

Mathematics Club Meets
Members of the Mathematics Club met April 24 in Room 119 at 7:15 p. m. George Williams spoke on the history of mathematics. The next meeting will be May 8 and Dwan Wick will be the speaker.

Miss Dorothy Harshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Harshaw of Graceland, Iowa, and Paul Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ward of Trenton, were married Sunday, April 8. Mrs. Ward was graduated from Northwest Missouri State College in 1948, and now is employed as physical education instructor in the Trenton high school.

Norine Norris and Polly Cramer are in Liberty doing a month of off campus student teaching in home economics.

Coach Ryland Milner's unstable Maryville Bearcats will meet the William Jewell tracksters at Liberty, May 4. This will be a new meeting for both teams.

William Jewell has in the past possessed teams which have capitalized upon the dash events. Maryville will have to capture the field and distance events in order to make a successful showing.

The tangle with William Jewell will precede the important outdoor meet May 12.

Intramural Softball Gets Slow Beginning

Intramural softball was scheduled to begin last Monday if weather conditions were permissible. Although the season will be short, the commission is planning to include an extensive program.

Formerly a double round robin program was scheduled, but failed to materialize partly because of weather conditions. All teams will vie for top league standing, and then meet each other in the concluding intramural softball tournament.

About nine teams are expected to compete. The Commission welcomes the organization of an Air Force softball team.

Random Shots

—By C. D. KNODLE—

A look at two of Maryville's tennis anchor-men as the season gets under way.

Home for Marvin "Bud" Carmichael is Hopkins. The senior, who will graduate at the end of the summer session, has double majors of physical education and industrial arts.

While in high school he was prepared in basketball and coached by an M. S. C. alum, Luke Shelton. During his four years at the College, Bud has participated in basketball competition. The Bearcat holds 2 "M's" in the hardwood game. He is also a member of "M" Club.

Last season when tennis was revamped Bud was among the top players in the department. He has continued with the game this season and at present is No. 1 man on Coach Grube's team. He climaxed play last season by taking a 4th in the state tennis meet held at Warrensburg.

Incidentally, at the tourney he played 75 games in one day and found enough time to drive back to Maryville. For "Bud", playing in the Warrensburg affair, was one of his big College thrills.

At present he is counted on to carry much of the burden of this season's tennis team. On the Campus he is active in Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity and various committees. He is a veteran of W. W. II—Navy that is—for the future, Bud plans to teach.

Former Bearcat football and basketball great Al Henningsen was a visitor on the campus one day last week. Al is now living in Atlantic, Iowa.

And the College pond is a busy place these days. Fishing reports are varied, but a few persons have pulled out some few little fellows. Good way to spend an afternoon.

Student golfers have been active with the coming of last week's spring weather. A tournament is being lined up to be played during the remainder of this quarter. This sport is becoming increasingly popular on the campus.

Senior John Pope has played consistent tennis during his two seasons of competition. He began playing the game while at Maryville High. John's other athletic interest during the four-year period was basketball.

After graduating in '43 he moved to North Dakota and the following year joined the Navy Air Corps. While in the service John continued to play tennis when possible. Following his 28 months duty, the southpaw attended North Dakota State at Fargo for one year. Since that time he has been working toward his degree here at the College.

He has continued with the tennis game and holds a single "M" for his work. His activities on the campus include various committees, Student Senate, Alpha Psi Omega.

He is the president of the senior class. With a business major and speech minor, John, who is married, plans to teach. He enjoys all sports and his favorite game to watch. John says "Baseball, of course!"

Du Pont's District Manager Discusses Chemical Research

Showing how progress in chemical research has contributed to raising the standard of living was the theme of a talk delivered by Mr. Vernon S. Peterson, Mid-west District Manager of Du Pont's Extension Division to several classes and in a Horace Mann assembly, April 18.

Using as his subject, "Progress in Better Living," the speaker told not only of the newest developments in chemical research, but how these developments get out of the test tubes into the hands of the public.

Light Goes Around Corner
Mr. Peterson related the story behind the development of nylon, and of "Lucite" acrylic resin—the versatile plastic which has contributed to medical science by making it possible to turn light around a corner—among many other chemical discoveries.

A native of the Middle West, Mr. Peterson is intimately acquainted with the growth of the area. He believes "there is progress only as long as it is the wish and the will of the people to provide conditions that make it possible."

Has Much Experience
This observation has grown out of years of association with the Du Pont Company and with agricultural engineering. Mr. Peterson is a graduate of Kansas State College. Prior to joining Du Pont, he served as agricultural extension engineer in Iowa and Pennsylvania. He also was acting director of the Iowa U. S. Forest Service CCC camps, and state administrator of Soil Conservation in Indiana.

Mr. Peterson has long been active in farm organizations, and he is at present a member of the Farm Conference of the National Safety Council and several other technical groups.

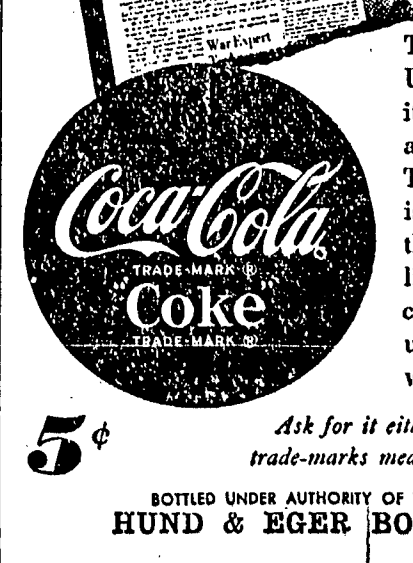

Miss Locke and Others Visit St. Louis Museum

Miss Martha Locke, accompanied by three students, Joyce Smith, Marjell Daranyi, and Maria Ardiles, drove to St. Louis where they observed the Hapsburg Art Collection being exhibited at the St. Louis Museum.

The group left Thursday and returned Sunday April 22. Miss Ardiles also visited kindergartens in St. Louis.

The Associated Students Memorial Union Building is one of the favorite on-campus haunts of students at the University of Washington. That's because the Union Building is a friendly place, always full of the busy atmosphere of college life. There is always plenty of ice-cold Coca-Cola, too. For here, as in university gathering spots everywhere—Coke belongs.

Ask for it either way... both trade-marks mean the same thing.
